CENTER AISLE POLICY

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

In an effort to help ensure the safety of all, the Heart of America Kennel Club, Inc. and the Leavenworth Kennel Club, Inc. want to remind all exhibitors of our Clubs' policy regarding individuals in the center aisle.

- The center aisle is for exhibitors showing dogs and those assisting them only.
- Temporary crating is offered to help those with multiple entries in one breed to contain dogs when not in the ring.
- All temporary crates must be removed within 15 minutes following the conclusion of judging for that breed.
- No grooming tables, soft-sided crates, chairs or equipment other than crates are allowed in the center aisle at any time.
- A temporary holding area for Toy Dogs is offered outside the Toy Ring(s) and exhibitors must remove all equipment within 15 minutes of the conclusion of judging for each breed.
- Individuals in motorized chairs or with other movement aids, whether showing or assisting, may be in the center aisle during the judging for that breed.
- All individuals who are watching judging should do so from the far sides of the rings, where ample space is available.
- Exhibitors going from one end of Hale Arena to the other are encouraged to use the side aisles to help further avoid congestion in the center aisle.
- The Clubs reserve the right to ask anyone to leave who is rude, belligerent or uncooperative with Club representatives or Hale Arena personnel.

Officers and members of the Heart of America Kennel Club, Inc. and the Leavenworth Kennel Club, Inc. will work with individuals to accommodate special needs, however, our first priority is the safety of all participants at our show – exhibitors, spectators, vendors and most importantly, the dogs.

Thank you for helping us to maintain a safe and enjoyable atmosphere for all!
